

Cavity Free at Three Technical Assistance Team

Mark Deutchman, MD

Dr. Mark Deutchman is a board-certified family physician with appointments as Professor in the School of Medicine and in the School of Dental Medicine. He is Director of the Rural Track for the School of Medicine, a program for students who are interested in future rural practice. He practiced in rural Washington State for 12 years and has been teaching for the last 18 years. He was the year 2000 recipient of the American Academy of Family Physicians Exemplary Teaching Award for Full Time Faculty and the 1999 recipient of the Colorado Academy of Family Physicians Teacher of the Year Award and has received the University of Colorado's Bridge to the Future Innovations in Education award.